

South Boston Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
South Boston, Va., February 25.—Miss Mary Lippcomb, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lippcomb, Jr., on upper Main, has returned to her home in Boston. During her visit here she was the guest of honor at several delightful social functions.
On Tuesday evening the Junior Order of the American Mechanics celebrated Washington's birthday with a banquet to its members and a few of their friends. H. C. Hendler was master of ceremonies, and the chief address of the occasion was made by H. H. Hendler, Rev. John Hammond, D. D., spoke at length upon the benefits and virtues of the order. Other speakers were C. E. Morris and S. A. Moorehead.
Rev. A. M. Randolph, Bishop of the Southern Diocese of Virginia, delivered an able and interesting sermon at the Episcopal Church Wednesday evening. After the sermon three candidates were confirmed. The music was under the direction of Mrs. A. R. Green, and a beautiful vocal solo was rendered by Mrs. F. H. Edmondson.
Dr. P. D. Johnston, of West Virginia, is visiting his brother, Lewis Johnston, at this place.
The Baptists at this place are considering the advisability of building a new church, to cost probably $25,000. The present building has become very inadequate for the Sunday school. A handsome pipe-organ will also be installed at an early date, as a large sum has already been raised by the girls of the H. H. Society.
George Richardson, of Lynchburg, was a visitor in South Boston a few days this week.
Miss Louise Penick, Miss Elizabeth Green and C. A. Penick visited Richmond this week.
H. J. Watkins, Jr., of Alaska, who has been in several weeks' visit to his parents at this place, left this week for Texas, where he will spend some time. He will then return to Seattle, Wash., his headquarters, where he is in the service of the U. S. Navy.
Miss Ruth Abbott, of Lynchburg, is visiting Miss May Penick at this place.
Miss W. H. Weaver, of Danville, is the guest of Mrs. G. E. Faulkner, at The Garland.

Williamsburg Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Williamsburg, Va., February 25.—Mrs. Alfred Hunt Jones and little son have been visiting Mrs. Miles' parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Taylor, at the college.
Mrs. J. K. Coffey, wife of the pastor of the Williamsburg Methodist Church, has returned from a visit of several days to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Durriss, in Highland Park, Richmond.
Edith Horcock, of Newport News, visited her mother, Mrs. Virginia Horcock, the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Jones, of Norfolk, have been spending several days here with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wente.
Miss Kathryn Geddy is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Geddy, in Salem. N. J. Miss Geddy and Miss Smith attended the military ball in Camden, N. J., on Wednesday night.
Mrs. Viola Ware left Thursday morning for Mobile, Ala., where she will spend a few days with her daughter, Miss Alice Ware.
Mrs. E. Ruffin Jones, wife of the pastor of Bruton Parish Church, and children are visiting Mrs. Jones' mother in Charlottesville.
Miss Alice Tilledge has returned from Ashland, Ky., where she spent the winter.
Miss Mary Bailey, of Clinton, is visiting her brother, L. J. Bailey, at Toccoa, Misses Fannie and Elizabeth Marston, of Toccoa, who have been spending several weeks in Baltimore and on the Eastern Shore, have returned home.
Miss Grace Welch, of Richmond, has been the guest this week of Mrs. E. T. Martin, in James City.

Warrenton Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Warrenton, Va., February 25.—Mr. and Mrs. John A. Martin gave a large and delightful dance on Thursday night at Leeton Hill to the members of the Wilbur-Fox wedding party and a large number of friends.
Mrs. Grafton Beall was hostess on Wednesday afternoon at Conway Grove at a given to Miss Jane Forbes and her guests.
Mrs. Edwin S. Hinks left this week for Baltimore, where she will be the guest of friends for a week or two.
Miss John A. C. Keith entertained at a luncheon on Wednesday, in honor of Miss Hinkley, who is the guest of Mrs. Lucien Keith.
Miss Corbin, of New York, is the guest of Mrs. J. C. Keith.

Chatham Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Chatham, Va., February 25.—The congregation of the Presbyterian Church appointed R. G. McLeod, J. M. Jones, Scott Carter, A. P. Edwards and G. E. Thompson a committee to correspond with architects and have a rough draft of the proposed addition to the church and the Sunday school room submitted, and report to the congregation on the first Sunday in March.
The entertainment at the Chatham Episcopal Institute Monday night brought out a large gathering of interested spectators, and the evening was thoroughly enjoyed.
Mrs. J. Hunt Hargrave entertained the Forty-two Club at her hospitable home, on West Main Street, Saturday night. After the game, which was very much enjoyed, refreshments were served.
Washington's Birthday was observed with the closing of the post-office and banks. The rural carriers did not make their rounds.
Plans are now being made for the addition to be made to the Chatham Episcopal Institute during the ensuing year. Work will be commenced at the earliest possible date.

Winchester Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Winchester, Va., February 25.—Mrs. Thomas Cover, Sr., and her daughter, Mrs. Thomas W. Harrison, left Winchester on Thursday to spend some time at Palm Beach, Fla.
Miss Ethel Vost, of Winchester, has gone to Baltimore to spend some time with her mother, who has been visiting friends in Martinsburg, W. Va., has returned to her home at Winchester.

UNVEILED MONI FORTI TABLET

MISS SALLY WELSH LONG.

of Garysburg, N. C., who took part in recent interesting exercises at Hill-fax, when the memory of the distinguished Mason was honored.

ington. Miss Catherine Sowers will leave within the next few days for New Orleans, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Julian D. Payne.

Walter Cook, of Baltimore, spent the week-end in Warrenton.

Miss Annie Camden Spilman, who was at Blacksburg, has joined General and Mrs. Spilman in Miami, Fla., where they are spending the winter.

A. M. R. Harrington, who is now making his home in Norfolk, is in Warrenton for several days.

Mrs. A. K. Manice, William Chaucery, Mrs. E. Q. Mason and General and Mrs. Quinton, of New York, are at Mrs. M. M. Green's.

Harry Bull, of the Meadowbrook Hunt, was in Warrenton several days recently.

Mrs. Lucien Keith, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mrs. Lucien Keith.

Miss Kate Keith left this week for Philadelphia, where she will be the guest of Mrs. C. M. Jones.

M. Inis Forbes, of West Virginia, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Forbes.

Crozier Fox, Richard Hanson, Kenzie Yarrow and Drewator Koons, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wilbur, Miss Harriet Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Wilbur, also of Philadelphia, are at the Warren Green Hotel.

State Normal School Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
State Normal School, Farmville, Va., February 25.—Miss Lucy Wheelock, of Boston, is the guest of Miss Mary V. Handy for a week. Miss Wheelock is a member of the International Kindergarten Training School, of Boston, and Chairman of the International Kindergarten Committee of Nineteen.

Miss Katharine Barley, who has been on an extended visit to friends in Baltimore, has returned to her home in Winchester.

L. P. Sany, of Richmond, has been spending several days with friends in Winchester.

Dr. J. P. Jarman and Professor W. A. Maddox have spent the past week in Mobile, Ala., attending the superintendents' division of the Southern Educational Association.

The first interschool debate of the season was held last Friday evening between the Cunningham and Pierian Literary Societies, and was the occasion of great enthusiasm. The question debated was, "That State-wide Prohibition is Preferable to Local Option," was ably discussed by Misses Louise Eubank and Pearl Justice, of the Cunningham Society, on the affirmative, and Misses Lucile Cole and Virginia Johnson, of the Pierian Society, on the negative. The judges were Dr. H. C. Lipscomb, of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg; Professor W. R. Smythe, of Petersburg, and Professor Terry, of Itasca, who rendered a decision, but not a unanimous one, in favor of the affirmative.

The annual reception given by the junior class to the senior class took place Wednesday evening, February 22, and was one of the most beautiful social events of the season. In the reception hall, where brilliant patriotic decorations prevailed, the guests were received by the officers of the two classes, assisted by Professor J. M. Merritt, Dean of the college, in session at Mount Vernon, enjoying, as the result two clever patriotic contests.

A delegation consisting of Miss Eleanor Richardson, V. W. C. A. secretary; Miss Lula O. Andrews, of the faculty, and three representatives from the students, Misses Ruth Hunt, Lily Percival and Grace Howell, is attending the student council of the Young Women's Christian Association for Virginia and the Carolinas, in session at Hollins Institute, February 24-26.

The students enjoyed a delightful surprise holiday on Thursday, following the festivities of Washington's Birthday.

Pictorial Review Ratterns

10c and 15c.
By mail 2c extra.
You will find these patterns to be the best that are issued.

J.B. Mosby & Co.

In Writing for Samples
Kindly state the colors you prefer and about what price you wish to pay.
Special attention given to mail orders.

Approved Styles in Women's and Misses'

New Spring Suits, $19.⁷⁵, $24.⁷⁵, $29.⁷⁵

NO telling what the weather will be outside to-morrow, but one thing is certain, it is spring time in the Suit Section at Mosby's.

There's a showing of styles and materials in this store that invites comparison, especially at the prices named this morning.

Every garment "Mosby-made," which means the latest style, the best materials possible and the highest class tailoring.

Women's and Misses' Suits in serges and novelty mixtures, 24-inch coats lined with messaline, plain tailored or silk collar, gored skirt.

Grey, tan, green, navy, Copenhagen, black and white checks, etc. $19.75

Women's and Misses' Suits in serges, mohairs and novelty mixtures: 24-inch coats lined with messaline, plain tailored or trimmed with braid; plain gored skirt.

Light grey, light tan, navy; also checks of black and white, blue and white and brown and white. $24.75

Women's and Misses' Suits in navy and black serges and mohairs, novelty suitings and black and white checks.

24-inch coats, lined with messaline, plain tailored or with silk collar; gored skirt; very stylish. $29.75

New Tailored and Lingerie Waists, $2.98

Just as stylish and pretty as high-class tailoring plus first-class materials can make.

The Tailored Waists are in heavy linen, with one-inch tucks down the back and front, trimmed with large pearl buttons; other styles hand-embroidered.

The Lingerie Waists are made of fine batiste, tucked back and front, tucked collar trimmed with lace.

New Silk Dresses, $11.98

Styles upon which Paris, the centre of the fashion world, has set its approval.

Rich, soft, high-class taffetas and messalines in black and white checks, navy stripes and polka dots, black with white polka dots and brown with light stripes.

Yoke of lace and solid color silk; silk girdle. Unusually cheap at $11.98.

New Wash Goods and White Goods

All of Them Low in Price—Two Specials for Monday Only

NEW things coming in every day to swell what already is the best and largest assortment in Richmond.

25c Brown Dress Linen, 19c yard Irish Linette & Col'd Flaxons, 17c yard Mercerized Colored Poplins, 25c yard

MONDAY ONLY!

A good quality and weight, 30 inches wide, for children's dresses and blouses; also women's wear. Six cents cut from the price for Monday only.

40c White Pique, 29c yard

MONDAY ONLY!

A 28-inch White Pique, in fine, medium and large welts. Especially suitable for women's skirts. Special price Monday only.

The Irish Linette is an all-cotton white goods that resembles and wears like a linen.

The Flaxons have a linen thread finish—a little harder than the Linette.

They come in white grounds with small floral patterns in dots and stripes.

Both fabrics 30 inches wide—excellent for summer wash dresses.

Lacenet Organdies, 25c yard

Beautiful wash goods with a lacelike appearance, as their name implies.

White and tinted grounds, with large floral designs, all colors, 30 inches wide, 25c yard.

A silklike finish cotton goods, in all colors.

29 inches wide, suitable for women's suits and skirts.

Somewhat out of the ordinary in value at 25c yard.

French Linen—Special 59c yard

It's 45 inches wide, thoroughly shrunken, for women's suits, and the color assortment is particularly large.

Every wanted shade, such as green, tan, white, pink, lavender, half a dozen or more shades of blue, etc.

MOHAIR Is an Exceptionally Serviceable SUMMER DRESS GOODS

Our New Weaves Are Particularly Beautiful for Tailored Suits.

THERE'S never been a cloth made that was a better dust shedder than mohair—consequently it makes ideal traveling suits.

You must by all means see our new designs in plain grey, navy and black; also black and navy with self-stripes, 42 to 48 inches wide. In our judgment the best values in mohairs we've ever shown at $1.00, $1.50 and $1.75 yard.

Latest Parisian Effect in Bordered Foulards

A very wide satin foulard—41 inches, with an unusually deep border. A soft, rich silk in white, purple, cerise, navy, Copenhagen and green grounds, with contrasting color rings and geometrical effects.

The border is in a much darker shade of the same color as the body of the silk, and, coupled with its unusual width, gives the fabric a very striking and stylish effect—$1.75 and $2.50 yard.

Style, Beauty and Service in These CREAM SUITINGS, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.50 Yard

Splendid variety of patterns. Some in plain cream, others in fine black stripes, and still others in chevron or wide wale stripes; 44 and 50 inches wide. Charming beautiful fabrics for summer suits and serviceable to a degree.

$35 Wilton Rugs, $29.50

Only eight rugs in this lot—Oriental designs and colorings—9x12 feet size. About fifteen per cent. cut from the price.

$3.50 Stenciled SCRIM Curtains, $1.85 pr

Fancy stenciled border effects in white and Arabian. Only two to four pairs of a pattern. Just about half price.

$1.35 & $1.50 Table Damask, $1.15 yard

A lot of odd pieces we are closing out is the reason for the cut. Extra heavy, all-linen Scotch damask, two yards wide, all good patterns, $1.15 yard.

Ladies, Such a Chance As This Will Never Be Offered Again!

Porter's
Specialty Shoe
Store

Going Out OF Business

PORTER'S Specialty Shoe Store,

217-219 NORTH FIFTH STREET, Back of Thalimer's

Buy Porter's Fine Shoes at Cost and Less

They must be sold—Porter is going out of business—and only a short time remains in which to dispose of the entire stock. If you need Shoes visit Porter's to-morrow.

4.00 and 5.00 Shoes.....$2.69	2.00 Pumps, Misses'....$1.19
$3.50 Shoes.....$2.19	2.00 Shoes, Misses'....$1.29
$3.00 Shoes.....$1.79	1.00 Infants' Shoes.... 50c
$2.50 Shoes.....$1.79	$4.00 and 5.00 Oxfords. $2.49
2.00 Shoes, Misses'.....$1.29	$3.50 Oxfords.....$1.99
$3.00 Oxfords.....$1.49

CASH ONLY. NOTHING CHARGED.
NO SHOES SENT ON APPROVAL.

Roanoke Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., February 25.—Mrs. Clifton P. Huff entertained at a beautiful "George Washington" reception Wednesday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. George C. Huff, of Washington county, and Mrs. Walter Carpenter. Receiving with them were Mrs. J. S. Browning, Mrs. Philip W. Huff, and Mrs. Albert Curtis, of Ogdensburg, N. Y.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. N. H. Hairston and Mrs. Samuel W. Hairston were hostesses of a beautiful Colonial tea. They were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Harry M. Darnall, Mrs. Callie Staples Daniel and Mrs. H. D. Vickers. The young ladies assisting were dressed in handsome Colonial costumes. The floral decorations were unusually pretty.

Mrs. P. W. Huff entertained Friday afternoon at a very pretty tea in honor of her home guest, Mrs. Albert Curtis, of Ogdensburg, N. Y.

An informal subscription dance was given by a number of young people at the Ponce de Leon Hotel Tuesday evening. It was led by Paul Graff with Miss Mayme Jennings.

The Roanoke German Club gave a beautiful

A NOTRE DAME LADY'S APEAL

At no knowing sufferers of rheumatism, whether muscular or of the joints, sciatica, lumbago, backache, pains in the kidneys or neuralgia pains, to write to her for a home treatment which has repeatedly cured all of these tortures. She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home as thousands will testify—no change of climate being necessary. This simple discovery takes the acute pain from the blood, loosens the stiffened joints, purifies the blood and brightens the eyes, giving elasticity and tone to the whole system. If the above interests you, for proof address MRS. M. SUMMERS, Box R, Notre Dame, Ind.

Roanoke Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., February 25.—Mrs. Clifton P. Huff entertained at a beautiful "George Washington" reception Wednesday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. George C. Huff, of Washington county, and Mrs. Walter Carpenter. Receiving with them were Mrs. J. S. Browning, Mrs. Philip W. Huff, and Mrs. Albert Curtis, of Ogdensburg, N. Y.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. N. H. Hairston and Mrs. Samuel W. Hairston were hostesses of a beautiful Colonial tea. They were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Harry M. Darnall, Mrs. Callie Staples Daniel and Mrs. H. D. Vickers. The young ladies assisting were dressed in handsome Colonial costumes. The floral decorations were unusually pretty.

Mrs. P. W. Huff entertained Friday afternoon at a very pretty tea in honor of her home guest, Mrs. Albert Curtis, of Ogdensburg, N. Y.

An informal subscription dance was given by a number of young people at the Ponce de Leon Hotel Tuesday evening. It was led by Paul Graff with Miss Mayme Jennings.

The Roanoke German Club gave a beautiful

Roanoke Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., February 25.—Mrs. Clifton P. Huff entertained at a beautiful "George Washington" reception Wednesday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. George C. Huff, of Washington county, and Mrs. Walter Carpenter. Receiving with them were Mrs. J. S. Browning, Mrs. Philip W. Huff, and Mrs. Albert Curtis, of Ogdensburg, N. Y.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. N. H. Hairston and Mrs. Samuel W. Hairston were hostesses of a beautiful Colonial tea. They were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Harry M. Darnall, Mrs. Callie Staples Daniel and Mrs. H. D. Vickers. The young ladies assisting were dressed in handsome Colonial costumes. The floral decorations were unusually pretty.

Mrs. P. W. Huff entertained Friday afternoon at a very pretty tea in honor of her home guest, Mrs. Albert Curtis, of Ogdensburg, N. Y.

An informal subscription dance was given by a number of young people at the Ponce de Leon Hotel Tuesday evening. It was led by Paul Graff with Miss Mayme Jennings.

The Roanoke German Club gave a beautiful

Don't Wear a Truss

STUART'S PLAS-TR-PADS are different from the painful truss, being made of self-adhesive porous tissue which is applied to the body without straps, buckles or springs—ensuring an exact and comfortable support. The most obstinate cases cured in the privacy of the home. Thousands have successfully treated themselves without hindrance from work. Send us a photograph of your trouble. We will send you a sample of our Plastro-Pads. Write name of PLAS-TR-PAD LABORATORIES, Block 13, St. Louis, Mo.